

I am an IT employee and also impart informations related to buisness strategies, re-modeling and at marketing aspect ,where i use both of my technical and entrepreneurial skills,which as of now is very much required for any organization to be at the top and also maintain its position with both QUALITY and QUANTITY driven pattern.i have had one and half years of experience which i could say were more of knowledge adding years,where i have learnt and applied all my efforts 2 bring up amazing ideas to set up much of the small scale industries which are in stable platform till date,some of my works include setting up textile business,an idea imparter to power generation company and to ad up more,i have also had an experience on E-commerce,as i have been working quiet a long time about this field and have also contributed my work to few of the E-commerce.

For me,SYT is lyk a bang on 2 my career as dis is a great platform for me 2 extend my buzz sessions to the next best level.I am available at wekends for any sort of relevant enquiries.